

The flat fit estimates μ at $\omega = \omega_0$ from the centre rows alone, so every width row is a genuine out-of-sample prediction.